

Privacy Policy

1. Introduction

We manage personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 and Australian Privacy Principles. This condensed policy applies to information collected by Scott Recruitment Services Pty Ltd.

We only collect information that is reasonably necessary for the proper performance of our activities or functions.

We do not collect personal information just because we think it could be useful at some future stage if we have no present need for it.

We may decline to collect unsolicited personal information from or about you and take steps to purge it from our systems.

By following the links in this document, you will be able to find out how we manage your personal information as an APP Entity under the Australian Privacy Principles \(APPs\). [Links to OAIC Privacy Fact Sheet No 17 Feb 2013] and our Information Record System [Links to Jobadder Privacy Policy]. When you access these links you will be leaving our website and we do not warrant the accuracy of those websites.

If you have any questions please contact us.

1.1. APP Entity

Scott Recruitment Services Pty Ltd manages personal information, as an APP Entity, under the Australian Privacy Principles \(APPs\). [Links to OAIC Privacy Fact Sheet No 17 Feb 2013].¹

Because we are a contracted service provider to a range of Commonwealth, State and Territory government agencies, it sometimes becomes necessary for us to collect and manage personal information as an Agency under different privacy arrangements.

If you wish to know whether this applies to you, please contact us.

1.2. Information Flow

When we collect your personal information:

- we check that it is reasonably necessary for our functions or activities as a recruitment agency and business broker;
- we check that it is current, complete and accurate. This will sometimes mean that we have to cross check the information that we collect from you with third parties;
- we record and hold your information in our Information Record System. Some information may be disclosed to overseas recipients;
- we retrieve your information when we need to use or disclose it for our functions and activities. At that time, we check that it is current, complete, accurate and relevant. This will sometimes mean that we have to cross check the information that we collect from you with third parties once again - especially if some time has passed since we last checked.

- subject to some exceptions, we permit you to access your personal information in accordance with APP:12 of the (APPs). [Links to OAIC Privacy Fact Sheet No 17 Feb 2013].
- we correct or attach associated statements to your personal information in accordance with APP:13 of the (APPs). [Links to OAIC Privacy Fact Sheet No 17 Feb 2013].
- we destroy or de-identify your personal information when it is no longer needed for any purpose for which it may be used or disclosed provided that it is lawful for us to do so. We do not destroy or de-identify information that is contained in a Commonwealth Record. [Links to definition in s.3 Archives Act 1983 which we reached via s.6(1) Privacy Act 1988 (as amended)].

2. Kinds of information that we collect and hold

3.4. Our Policy on Direct Marketing

Our Direct Marketing activities are limited to approaching clients on behalf of a candidate via email or telephone conversation with the express verbal authority of the candidate. In some instances a client may ask us to approach a candidate on their behalf.

Subscribers to our newsletter Inside Recruitment have chosen to opt-in to the list and on each occasion of receiving the newsletter have the choice to unsubscribe.

4. How your personal information is collected

The means by which we will generally collect your personal information are likely to differ depending on whether you are:

- a Workseeker

- a Client
- a Referee

We sometimes collect information from third parties and publicly available sources when it is necessary for a specific purpose such as checking information that you have given us or where you have consented or would reasonably expect us to collect your personal information in this way.

Sometimes the technology that is used to support communications between us will provide personal information to us - see the section in this policy on Electronic Transactions.

See also the section on Photos & Images.

4.1. For Workseekers

Personal information will be collected from you directly when you fill out and submit one of our application forms or any other information in connection with your application to us for work.

Personal information is also collected when:

- When you apply through an online job advertisement or through our website your details will be automatically added to our Information Record System.
- You submit your resume and contact details directly to us via email or post.

We may also collect personal information about you from a range of publicly available sources including newspapers, journals, directories, the Internet and social media sites. When we collect personal information about you from publicly available sources for inclusion in our records we will manage the information in accordance with the APPs [Links to OAIC Privacy Fact Sheet No 17 Feb 2013] and our Privacy Policy.

4.2. For Clients

Personal information about you may be collected:

- when you provide it to us for business or business related social purposes;

We may also collect personal information about you from a range of publicly available sources including newspapers, journals, directories, the Internet and social media sites. When we collect personal information about you from publicly available sources for inclusion in our records we will manage the information in accordance with the APPs [Links to OAIC Privacy Fact Sheet No 17 Feb 2013] and our Privacy Policy.

4.3. For Referees

Personal information about you may be collected when you provide it to us:

- in the course of our checking Workseeker references with you and when we are checking information that we obtain from you about Workseekers;

We may also collect personal information about you from a range of publicly available sources including newspapers, journals, directories, the Internet and social media sites. When we collect personal information about you from publicly available sources for inclusion in our records we will manage the information in accordance with the APPs [Links to OAIC Privacy Fact Sheet No 17 Feb 2013] and our Privacy Policy.

4.4. Photos & Images

We will not request that you supply photographs, scan photo ID, or capture and retain video image data of you in cases where simply sighting photographs or proof of identity documents would be sufficient in the circumstances.

4.5. Electronic Transactions

Sometimes, we collect personal information that individuals choose to give us via online forms or by email, for example when individuals:

- ask to be on an email list such as a job notification list;
- register as a site user to access facilities on our site such as a job notification board;
- make a written online enquiry or email us through our website;
- submit a resume by email or through our website;
- respond to an online advertisement through a third party job board

It is important that you understand that there are risks associated with use of the Internet and you should take all appropriate steps to protect your personal information. It might help you to look at the OAIC's resource on Internet Communications and other Technologies [Links to OAIC website resource]

You can contact us by land line telephone or post if you have concerns about making contact via the Internet.

Our contact details are:

We may also collect information from online sources such as

- Social networks and web searches
- Our Information Record System – Jobadder

5. How your personal information is held

Personal information is held in our Information Record System until it is no longer needed for any purpose for which it may be used or disclosed at which time it will be de-identified or destroyed provided that it is lawful for us to do so.

We take a range of measures to protect your personal information from:

- misuse, interference and loss; and
- unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

5.1. Our Information Record System

Our Information Record System is a cloud based product called Jobadder and their privacy policy can be viewed on their website [Links to the Jobadder Privacy Policy].

All hard copy documents are stored in locked filing cabinets or in the Information Record System described previously which is password protected.

5.2. Information Security

All hard copy documents are stored in locked filing cabinets or in the Information Record System described previously which is password protected.

6. Disclosures

We may disclose your personal information for any of the purposes for which it is primarily held or for a lawful related purpose.

We may disclose your personal information where we are under a legal duty to do so.

Disclosure will usually be:

- internally and to our related entities
- to our Clients
- to Referees for suitability and screening purposes.

6.1. Related Purpose Disclosures

We outsource a number of services to contracted service suppliers (CSPs) from time to time. Our CSPs may see some of your personal information. Typically our CSPs would include:

- Software solutions providers;
- I.T. contractors and database designers and Internet service suppliers;
- Legal and other professional advisors;
- Insurance brokers, loss assessors and underwriters;
- Superannuation fund managers;
- Background checking and screening agents;

We take reasonable steps to ensure that terms of service with our CSPs recognise that we are bound by obligations to protect the privacy of your personal information and that they will not do anything that would cause us to breach those obligations.

6.2. Cross-Border Disclosures

There may be an instance where some of your personal information is likely to be disclosed to overseas recipients, especially if you have applied for a position outside Australia. We cannot guarantee that any recipient of your personal information will protect it to the standard to which it ought to be protected. The costs and difficulties of enforcement of privacy rights in foreign jurisdictions and the impracticability of attempting to enforce such rights in some jurisdictions will mean that in some instances, we will need to seek your consent to disclosure.

The likely countries, type of information disclosed and recipients are indicated, so far as is practicable, in the following table:

Country	Type of Information	Likely Recipient
The United Kingdom of Great Britain	Personal data held by us namely, your resume, reference check reports and/or names and contact details of referees	A client that you would be advised of prior to your resume being submitted to them
Hong Kong	Personal data held by us namely, your resume, reference check reports and/or names and contact details of referees	A client that you would be advised of prior to your resume being submitted to them
Singapore	Personal data held by us namely, your resume, reference check reports and/or names and contact details of referees	A client that you would be advised of prior to your resume being submitted to them
New Zealand	Personal data held by us namely, your resume, reference check reports and/or names and contact details of referees	A client that you would be advised of prior to your resume being submitted to them

7. Access & Correction

Subject to some exceptions set out in privacy law, you can gain access to your personal information that we hold.

Important exceptions include:

- evaluative opinion material obtained confidentially in the course of our performing reference checks; and access that would impact on the privacy rights of other people. In many cases evaluative material contained in references that we obtain will be collected under obligations of confidentiality that the person who gave us that information is entitled to expect will be observed. We do refuse access if it would breach confidentiality.

For more information about access to your information see our Access Policy.

For more information about applying to correct your information see our Correction Policy.

7.1. Access Policy

If you wish to obtain access to your personal information you should contact our Privacy Co-ordinator. You will need to be in a position to verify your identity. You will receive a response within 30 days.

7.2. Correction Policy

If you find that personal information that we hold about you is inaccurate, out of date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading, you can ask us to correct it by contacting us.

We will take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to correct that information to ensure that, having regard to the purpose for which it is held, the information is accurate, up to date, complete, relevant and not misleading.

If we have disclosed personal information about you that is inaccurate, out of date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading, you can ask us to notify the third parties to whom we made the disclosure and we will take such steps (if any) as are reasonable in the circumstances to give that notification unless it is impracticable or unlawful to do so.

You will receive a response within 30 days.

Complaints

You have a right to complain about our handling of your personal information if you believe that we have interfered with your privacy.

For more information see our Complaints Procedure.

7.3. Complaints procedure

If you are making a complaint about our handling of your personal information, it should first be made to us in writing.

You can make complaints about our handling of your personal information to our Privacy Co-ordinator, whose contact details are:

Rosemary Scott
rosemary@scottrecruitment.com.au
+61 2 9221 2700

You can also make complaints to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner [Links to OAIC Website]

Complaints may also be made to RCSA, the industry association of which we are a member.

RCSA administers a Code of Conduct for the professional and ethical conduct of its members.

The RCSA Code is supported by rules for the resolution of disputes involving members.

NOTE: The Association Code and Dispute Resolution Rules do NOT constitute a recognised external dispute resolution scheme for the purposes of the APPs; but are primarily designed to regulate the good conduct of the Associations members.

When we receive your complaint:

- We will take steps to confirm the authenticity of the complaint and the contact details provided to us to ensure that we are responding to you or to a person whom you have authorised to receive information about your complaint;
- Upon confirmation we will write to you to acknowledge receipt and to confirm that we are handling your complaint in accordance with our policy.
- We may ask for clarification of certain aspects of the complaint and for further detail;
- We will consider the complaint and may make inquiries of people who can assist us to established what has happened and why;
- We will require a reasonable time (usually 30 days) to respond;
- If the complaint can be resolved by procedures for we will suggest these to you as possible solutions;
- If we believe that your complaint may be capable of some other solution we will suggest that solution to you, on a confidential and without prejudice basis in our response;

If the complaint cannot be resolved by means that we propose in our response, we will suggest that you take your complaint to any recognised external dispute resolution scheme to which we belong or to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner [Links to OAIC Website].
